What makes a will a valid will?

- Any person 16 years and older can make a will provided that at the time of making the will they are mentally capable of appreciating the nature and effect of this act.
- The formalities of a valid will are:
- The will must be in writing
- The signature of the testator/testatrix must appear at the end of the will.
- This signature must be made in the presence of two or more competent witnesses.
- Should the will comprise of more than one page the Testator/Testatrix must sign every page.
- The witnesses must sign the will in the presence of the Testator/Testatrix all present at the same time. The witnesses need only sign the last page of the will.
- It is preferable that the will be dated.
